VI. PROCEDURE:

A. It is the policy of the Las Vegas Police Department to foster a program of discipline which defines the word "discipline" as "training or development through instruction," in order to provide a framework for the fair and consistent administration of discipline. This will enable the department to retain its discretionary authority for the "individualized" imposition of disciplinary action while ensuring a systematic and consistent administration of discipline to all personnel of the Las Vegas Police Department.

B. Observation of Department Rules

- 1. The Las Vegas Police Department maintains a set of rules to encourage professional standards. Knowledge of the rules is imperative to produce an ethic in which all personnel of the department follow a code of conduct. All personnel shall observe rules, regulations, policies and procedures which have been set forth in the both the City of Las Vegas Personnel Manual and the Department Rules and Regulations. The fair and impartial enforcement of the rules shall serve as a cornerstone for a professional police department.
- 2. The disciplinary and grievance systems are designed to provide fairness in resolving personnel problems. Personnel shall familiarize themselves with the procedures as outlined in the City of Las Vegas Personnel Manual and the Department Rules and Regulations.

C. Responsibility

- 1. Support of the disciplinary system is a responsibility shared by all department personnel.
- 2. Supervisor(s) are responsible to motivate, counsel, and train individuals toward self-discipline. Supervisors are charged with the responsibility of initiating corrective action when violations are committed.
- 3. Failure of a supervisor to immediately initiate corrective and/or disciplinary action against an employee for a violation of the rules and regulations when appropriate shall constitute dereliction of duty on the part of that supervisor.
- 4. Supervisors have the authority to initiate disciplinary action on employees through the chain of command. All requests for disciplinary action must be made in writing with all documentation attached.

5. Supervisors have the authority to relieve an employee from duty status pending review through the chain of command.
6. Supervisors shall request the type of disciplinary action from the Chief of Police such as written reprimand, suspension, demotion or termination.

D. Special Procedures

1. The Chief of Police may circumvent all formal disciplinary procedures to render an immediate decision when he deems it necessary to preserve the integrity of the Department.

E. Performance counseling for less serious infractions of rules

1. Performance Counseling provides immediate disciplinary action against employees who fail to conform to certain departmental standards of conduct and appearance. This procedure does not require a subsequent investigation. Performance Counseling may be imposed within the employee's chain of command by an oral reprimand or performance counseling.
 - a. Oral reprimands will be documented by the supervisor.
 - b. A copy of performance counseling will be sent to the employee's Division Commander.
2. Action under this section will not bar a recommendation for a more severe penalty by higher authority when it is felt that performance counseling is being used to cover a transgression warranting a more severe penalty.

F. Letters of Reprimand

1. When the recommended disciplinary action is a written reprimand, the employee's immediate Supervisor will prepare a request and send it up the chain of command to the Division Commander. The Division Commander will have the opportunity to write the letter or reprimand or refer it back to the Supervisor for informal review. If a letter of reprimand is written it will be addressed to the employee and contain the following information:
 - a. A brief description of the incident involving the employee.
 - b. The specific rules violated.

2. Written reprimands issued to sworn personnel will close with the following statement:

- a. a copy of this reprimand will be placed in your personnel file. Any future violation by you of the City personnel rules, or departmental rules or regulations issued by the Chief of Police will result in the appropriate penalty for such violation and may result in more severe disciplinary action. A letter of reprimand is not grievable unless pay or benefits are affected.

3. Upon receiving a written reprimand, the employee will acknowledge receipt by signing the document. The original of the letter will be given to the employee and a copy will be put in the officer's personnel file.

G. Administrative Leave with pay

1. Pending an investigation of employee misconduct, including a predetermination hearing, if it is determined by the Chief of Police or his designee, that it would be in the best interest of the City for the employee not to perform his regular duties, the employee may be placed on leave of absence with pay.

H. Suspensions

1. If the situation warrants and for cause, the Chief of Police, in consultation with the City Manager, may suspend without pay, measures normally considered coequal.
 - a. Suspensions without pay will normally apply to a period as determined by the Chief of Police or by existing City Policies, which may apply.
 - b. If an employee shall become a candidate for suspension a second time within one year after the first suspension, the employee may be dismissed.
 - c. Suspensions resulting from criminal investigations may be prolonged pending court action.
 1. In no case shall an employee convicted of a felony continue to work for the Las Vegas Police Department.
 2. If an employee is acquitted of criminal charges, the employee may yet be disciplined at the discretion of the Chief of Police or reinstated with full or partial back pay.
 - d. Any member suspended for a period five days or longer shall return all department-owned property to the Chief of Police through the Division Commander. On any suspension, the officer must return to the respective Commander his or her badge, identification card, issued firearm and assigned unit.

- e. During a suspension, the employee shall not undertake any official duties.
- f. Demotion should be to the next lowest rank unless determined otherwise.
- g. An employee may protest a suspension as prescribed by the City of Las Vegas Employee Policy. An employee may appeal a suspension as per the existing appeal process, which will be made available upon such action. The City of Las Vegas will conduct a hearing and the resulting decision will be final.
- h. The City Manager may reinstate a suspended employee at any time, with back pay, benefits, and original rank or position.

I. Demotion (reduction in Rank)

- 1. If the situation warrants and for cause, the Chief of Police, in consultation with the City Manager, may demote an employee, measures normally considered coequal. Note that a reduction in rank may be used with other disciplinary action.

J. Termination

- 1. Dismissals are made in cases of extreme misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance of duty. A complete record of the circumstances of the misbehavior shall be made by all persons having knowledge of the misbehavior.
- 2. Employees may protest or appeal a dismissal within the time prescribed by City Policy.
- 3. Whenever dismissal or suspension is contemplated, the department shall provide notice to the employee as well as written directions with regard to the appeals process.
- 4. At the time of the employees termination and prior to the final payment of wages the employee shall return all records, uniforms, badges, identification cards, keys and all other police department property in the employees custody. Criminal charges may ensue if all departmental property is not returned without delay.

K. Reporting Arrests

- 1. Any employee arrested for, charged with, or convicted of any crime, or required to appear as a defendant in any criminal or civil proceedings, must so inform the Chief of Police in writing as soon as possible. Employees do not have to report parking tickets or minor traffic offenses. Employees must report citations or arrests for reckless driving, DWI, second (2nd) or subsequent violations for speeding, or any other traffic offenses with penalties over $100.00. Failure to notify the department of the foregoing shall be cause for punishment.

L. Appeals

1. Employees who have completed their probation period have a right to appeal:
 - a. Upon receipt of written notification from the Chief of Police for a definite suspension, reduction in rank, and/or termination an employee will have a right to appeal in accordance with the City Grievance Procedure.

M. Maintenance of Records of Disciplinary Action

1. All formal disciplinary actions must be in written form.
2. The record of disciplinary action shall reflect where the record will be filed. Formal discipline will be files in the Personnel File. Informal discipline will be filed in the Supervisor's file.

N. Infractions and Punishments

1. Except for gross breaches of discipline, supervisors shall attempt to begin employee discipline with the least punitive measures. If these do not work, then increasingly more severe measures may be required. While this process may take some time, it is important that each employee be dealt with justly, and in a manner, which clearly indicates that positive, constructive measures to change behavior or performance preceded the imposition of more negative sanctions.
2. Employees are reminded that all appeals are governed by law, as specified under the Law Enforcement Officers' "Bill of Rights" and "Garrity."
3. Unacceptable conduct is divided into three categories according to severity of misbehavior.
 - a. Category I offenses are of minor severity yet require correction in the interest of maintaining a productive and well-managed department. Category I offenses normally result, in the first offense, in informal measures such as counseling, or perhaps by oral reprimand/formal counseling dependent upon the circumstances. Two Category I offenses within one year results in a written reprimand or suspension of up to five days. A third instance in one year shall provide grounds for longer suspension or dismissal.
 1. Excessive absences, tardiness.
 2. Abuse of duty time (too much time away from established duties; too much time for personal business).
 3. Abusive or obscene language.

4. Inadequate or unsatisfactory job performance.
 5. Disruptive behavior.
- b. Category II offenses include more severe acts and misbehavior. Category II offenses normally result, in the first instance, an issuance of a written reprimand. A subsequent infraction within two years shall result in suspension of up to ten days or demotion or dismissal.
1. Failure to follow supervisor's instructions, perform assigned work, or otherwise comply with policy.
 2. Violating safety rules without a threat to life.
 3. Unauthorized time away from work assignments without permission during duty hours.
 4. Failure to report to work without proper notice to a supervisor.
 5. Unauthorized use or misuse of department property.
 6. Refusal to work overtime.
- c. Category III offenses include acts of such severity as to merit suspension or dismissal at a single occurrence. Category III offenses may be punished by suspension or dismissal as determined by the Chief of Police with approval of the City Manager.
1. Absence in excess of three days without notice to a superior.
 2. Use of alcohol or unlawful possession or use of a controlled substance while on duty.
 3. Reporting to work under the influence or when ability is impaired by alcohol or the unlawful use of controlled substances.
 4. Insubordination or serious breach of discipline.
 5. Falsification of any reports such as, but not limited to, vouchers, official reports, time records, leave records, or knowingly making any false official statement.
 6. Willfully or negligently damaging or destroying city property.
 7. Theft or unauthorized removal of departmental records, city or other employee property.

8. Gambling on any Property of the City of Las Vegas.
9. Acts of physical violence or fighting (except official police actions).
10. Violating safety rules where there is a threat to life.
11. Sleeping on duty.
12. Participating in any kind of work slowdown or sit down or any other concerted interference with police department operations.
13. Unauthorized possession or use of firearms, dangerous weapons, or explosives.
14. Threatening or coercing employees or supervisors.
15. Criminal convictions for acts of conduct occurring on or off the job which are plainly related to job performance and consequently to continue the employee in the assigned position would constitute negligence regarding the agency's duties to the public.
16. Failure to take physical or mental examinations as required. The Chief of Police may require mental or physical examinations of a member or employee by a designated psychiatrist, psychologist, or physician when, in the Chief's estimation, it is in the best interest of the member, employee, or the department.
17. Using public office for private gain.
18. Engaging in criminal conduct on or off the job.
19. Engaging in dishonest or immoral conduct that undermines the effectiveness of the agency's activities or employee performance, whether on or off the job.
20. Willful disobedience of a lawful command of a supervisor.
21. Disclosure of confidential information to any person except those who may be entitled to such information.
22. Taking any action, which will impair the efficiency or reputation of the department, its members, or employees.

23. Acceptance of any bribe, gift, token, money, or other things of value intended as an inducement to perform or refrain from performing any official act, or any action of extortion or other means of obtaining money or anything of value through his position.
24. Manifesting cowardice, feigning illness, or otherwise attempting to shirk official duty.
25. Involvement in any compromise between persons accused of crime and the person or persons who may have suffered from criminal acts with the purpose of allowing the accused to escape punishment.
26. Failure to answer questions specifically directed and related to official or job fitness. (Unless criminal prosecution is contemplated.)
27. The use of duties unnecessary force during an arrest/custody procedure.
28. Deviation from established procedures in the disposition of summons or arrest cases.

O. Probationary Employees

1. Employees who have not completed their probationary period have no right of appeal through the City Grievance Procedure.
2. All new employees shall serve a probationary period of twelve months. AFSME Union employees shall serve a six month probationary period as per their "Labor Contract"
3. In addition any employee who is promoted, demoted or otherwise transferred from one position to another position shall be on probation for a period of twelve months.
4. Probationary employees shall be dismissed, suspended, or otherwise disciplined according to the foregoing. The only difference is that a probationary employee has no right of appeal.
5. In the case of a dismissed probationary employee, the official record will merely indicate that the person was dismissed during probationary employment.

P. Sexual Harassment and Other Discrimination

1. Employees found to have engaged in discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, political affiliation, handicap, age, or sex (including sexual harassment) may be counseled or disciplined with either a Category I, II, or III Offense, depending upon the specific facts and circumstances surrounding the incident.
 - a. Sexual harassment is defined in the City of Las Vegas Personnel Ordinance PO 86-8 section 2-6-12.9.

Q. Discipline Checklist

1. The following checklist is from the Management Kit of the American Management Association. It is a tool for supervisors to help analyze the employee misbehavior and offer correction.
